Module 1: GSI Ethics and Professional Responsibilities

GSI Teaching & Resource Center

The GSI Teaching & Resource Center is an academic unit in the Graduate Division that provides pedagogical support and guidance for GSIs. Programs include teaching conferences for first-time GSIs, workshops, course improvement grants, teaching awards, confidential consultations, the GSI Professional Standards and Ethics in Teaching Online Course, the Certificate in Teaching and Learning in Higher Education, and the Language Proficiency Program for GSIs who do not speak English as a native language. The Center maintains the online Teaching Guide for GSIs and houses a physical library of books, articles, videos, and other reference materials on teaching.

Students of Concern Committee

510-664-4218

Submit a care report

The purpose of the Students of Concern Committee is to provide a means for early intervention of at-risk students through collaboration with campus departments, faculty, and staff. Students exhibiting behaviors that are of concern in relation to their personal, physical, and emotional well-being should be referred to this team of professionals. Please see the website above for a list of behaviors of concern.

The Students of Concern Committee is a multi-disciplinary body of stakeholders from across the University that receives referrals pertaining to students of concern, collects additional information, and identifies and enacts appropriate strategies for addressing the situation. These stakeholders include Counseling and Psychological Services, the Center for Student Conduct, the Office of the Dean of Students, the Disabled Students' Program, the UC Police Department, and several other offices.

Feel free to call for consultation prior to submitting the report if you are hesitant, have questions, or need immediate advice.

The Students of Concern Committee is not meant to be the sole mechanism of communication and will not take the place of services provided by Counseling & Psychological Services, Center for Student Conduct, University Police, or other established student services.

Counseling and Psychological Services

Located in University Health Services (UHS), Tang Center
2222 Bancroft Way
510-642-9494

Counseling and Psychological Services (CPS) provides brief counseling to students with personal, academic, and career concerns. Professional counselors can meet with students to talk about a number of concerns such as adjusting to school, deciding on a career or major, dealing with family or relationship issues, and coping with personal crises. All undergraduate and graduate students are eligible for CPS services, regardless of their insurance coverage.

Ombuds Office for Undergraduate and Graduate Students and Postdoctoral Appointees

510-642-5754

The Ombuds Office for students provides a confidential service for students involved in a University-related problem (either academic or administrative), acting as a neutral complaint resolver and not as an advocate for any of the parties involved in a dispute. The Ombudsperson can provide information on policies and procedures affecting students, facilitate students' contact with services able to assist in resolving the problem, and assist students in complaints concerning improper application of University policies or procedures. All matters referred to this office are held in strict confidence. The only exceptions, at the sole discretion of the Ombudsperson, are cases where there appears to be imminent threat of serious harm.

685 University Hall

510-643-7985 or ask\_ophd@berkeley.edu

The Office for the Prevention of Harassment and Discrimination (OPHD) is responsible for ensuring that the University provides an environment for faculty, staff, and students that is free from discrimination and harassment on the basis of protected categories including race, color, national origin, gender, age, and sexual orientation/identity. OPHD monitors and evaluates campus efforts to meet requirements under University policies prohibiting discrimination and harassment and applicable federal and state regulations. OPHD provides policy information and guidance when responding to incidents of possible sexual or racial harassment and other forms of discrimination.

OPHD has the responsibility to implement procedures for providing prompt and effective responses to complaints of a hostile work/academic environment, sexual or racial harassment, or other discrimination concerns. Further, the office has oversight responsibility to initiate, coordinate, or conduct investigations into claims of violations of campus policy in all areas of discrimination against protected categories. The scope of this responsibility is campus-wide, covering faculty, staff, and students. OPHD provides education about issues of discrimination, equity, and the effects of discrimination and unequal treatment on the campus climate. Their services are available to faculty, staff, and students.
