After reviewing a Care Report, the Center for Support and Interventions brings select cases to the Students of Concern Committee, when appropriate.

The purpose of the Students of Concern Committee is to provide a means for early intervention of at-risk students. The Committee includes representatives from the Counseling and Psychological Services, the Center for Student Conduct, the Office of the Dean of Students, the Disabled Students Program, the UC Police Department, and several other offices. When a case is brought to the committee by the Center for Support and Intervention, the committee collects additional information and identifies and enacts appropriate strategies for addressing the situation.
